This beautiful yacht belonging to a German owner is located in Croatia. It has been maintained to an above-average standard by a reputable charter company under Austrian management. The yacht is fully equipped for sailing, ready to go, in good condition, and can be taken over at the end of the charter season (starting October/November). There is no structural damage to the underwater hull segment. Continued operation of the yacht in charter for 1–2 more years may be possible and can be coordinated with the charter company.
